

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Monday Morning, Feb. 11.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier 30 cents per week By Mail $10.00 per Year OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

Council meeting this evening. The circuit court meets to-day. Additional local on seventh page. Cheap railroad tickets at Bushnell's.

The Council Bluffs Hunting club meets at P. J. McMahon's office this evening. 'Baby' Barnes arrived in the city Saturday, but attracted little attention.

A. Purdue, arrested for disturbing the peace and for stealing an axe, is to have a hearing before Justice Schurz Wednesday.

Matrimonial permits were issued Saturday to Alphonse Saxton and Isabella McCrea, also to T. L. Woodward and Ollie Wilcox.

Last evening the Presbyterians and Congregationalists held a union service in the Presbyterian church, and will hold similar services in that church during the week.

Saturday was the day set for the selling at auction of the old city building on Broadway. Mayor Bowman was out of the city, and hence it was postponed one week.

Some of the Second ward citizens are planning to call a meeting to talk over city improvements and consult as to what they had better do in regard to the coming alderman.

Jacob Kampf, the well-known resident of Avoca, died at that place Tuesday last, after an illness of several weeks. Deceased was aged 41 years, and had been a resident of Avoca for nine years.

C. N. Waterhouse drops a line to THE BEE from Malvern, saying that he has had his pocket picked, there being in his wallet $36, two drafts, one for $438 and the other for $300, also two notes.

The ground between the city building and city jail having been prepared for the wood vendors they are now compelled to occupy it instead of standing, as usual, at the corner of Bryant and Broadway.

A very fleshy colored woman hailing from Omaha, slipped on the icy sidewalk in front of Baker's drugstore on Broadway yesterday afternoon, and by the fall broke her leg. She was taken to Mollie Wallace's and there cared for.

The married ladies are preparing for a grand masquerade at the Ogden house parlors at an early date, and are planning to get elegant costumes from Chicago. There are several trunks full of costumes already at the Ogden, they belonging to the church choir company which went to pieces here.

The Deaf Mute Hawkeye, Jr., is the name of the new-born journal at the institution. It is wee but bright, and is welcome to a place among THE BEE's visitors. Its editorial favoring the removal of the institution to some other city in the state is a little unkind, and does not meet the views of Council Bluffs folks at all, but aside from that its columns afford pleasant reading.

The so-called fire alarm caused the department to turn out Saturday, the register showing nine marks about the same length, and one about sixteen inches long. As there is no sixteen, or eleven, or ninety-one, the boys could not make any sense out of it. No fire has been heard of, and the alarm is surrounded with the usual mystery. How long will the city fool with such a system, or, rather, lack of system?

Some of the county papers have much to say about Council Bluffs wanting to burden the county with heavy taxes for the benefit of the city. Council Bluffs pays about one-third of the entire tax, and if the new court house and jail proposition is carried, will have to pay more than a third of the cost, for the valuation of property here is increasing more rapidly, and the growth is more than the county at large. This year Council Bluffs will spend $300,000 on paving alone, increasing the value of property much more than that amount, while other great public improvements are being made, and many private enterprises started. If, with all this to increase the valuation and the proportion of taxes, this city is willing to stand what will prove before the end of the ten years more than one-third of the entire cost, it seems that the country at large had little ground to inimate that the city is trying to burden the county for the sole benefit of the city.

Hardman on the Raise. NEW YORK, January 24, 1884. J. Mueller, Council Bluffs, Iowa: Dear Sir--Copy of THE BEE received. Thanks. The letter from Mellor, Hoene & Hendricks shows the position taken for the Hardman pianos by nearly all our agents now. Messrs. Dutton & Son, in Philadelphia, and White, Smith & Co., in Boston have demonstrated what could be done in those cities, while you yourself have had no mean success with our pianos and we have yet to hear of any single dealer who has not had the very best success with them. We appreciate your efforts for the pianos and trust you are doing all in your power to put it in the front rank, where it belongs, and that your efforts are devoted to that end. With very kindest regards, dear sir, very sincerely yours, HARDMAN, DOWLING & PECK.

SLUNG-SHOTS AND KNIVES. Two Loving Brothers-in-Law Have a Row at a Dance.

One Stabbed Six Times by the Other.

On Saturday night there was a dance at the house of one Jim Golden (not the Jim of meat market and aldermanic fame), located south of the old Wabash depot. A bloody row was the exciting event of the evening, and, as several were concerned in it, the exact part which each took, and the amount of blame attached to each, it is difficult to determine. One thing is certain, to start with, and that is that Jim Crooks, one of the party, received six stabs by a knife, one cut being on his right arm, the other being about the left shoulder and side. Dr. Ballinger cared for the wounds, and thinks there is no great danger to be apprehended from any of them unless it be one in the side, which is rather deep.

Crooks was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn out before Justice Schurz, the charge being for disturbing the peace. Crooks, in turn, claims that F. M. Phillips, his brother-in-law, was the one who did the stabbing. It is claimed that there had been some bad blood between these two brothers-in-law, and that while Phillips was at the dance enjoying himself Crooks and one or two others came to the house. They were refused admission and the door locked against them. Then one of the outside parties kicked down the door and the row begun. It is said that Crooks had a slung-shot with which he began to pound up Phillips, when the latter pulled a knife and commenced slashing, which caused Crooks to let up and get away as well as he could. Another in the party drew a dirk and brandished it about, and a brickbat was among the other weapons of offense and defense shown up in the melee. Crooks seems to be the only one seriously injured, however, during the row.

COL. KINSMAN'S REMAINS.

The Old Soldiers of Council Bluffs Want Them Brought Here.

A meeting of the Old Soldiers of Council Bluffs, was held Saturday evening, and the following action taken concerning the removal of the remains of Col. Kinsman: WHEREAS, The mortal remains of Col. W. H. Kinsman, who died on the battle field from wounds received in battle while bravely leading his regiment, are about to be brought to this state for final interment; and

WHEREAS, Col. Kinsman entered the army from this city in 1861, and this city was his home during his entire residence in the state; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this post, composed of part of men who served with and under Col. Kinsman, and also of old personal friends and associates, respectfully and earnestly ask that his remains be brought to this city for final interment.

Resolved, That the post hereby tenders a place in the soldiers' burial lot in Fairview cemetery in this city, for such interment, and will take upon itself the charge of said remains and their final interment on their arrival in this city.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published, and that a certified copy of the same be forwarded to the adjutant general of the state without unnecessary delay; also that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to Gen. U. M. Dodge, and also to our representatives in the Iowa legislature in the senate and house.

The following comrades were appointed as a committee in conjunction with the officers of the post to carry out the above: John Fox, N. H. Campbell, H. Ganheiser, J. W. Kilgore, W. Russell, E. L. Folsom, R. N. Merriam.

Attest: Wm. Roper, S. V. C. EDWIN J. ABBOTT, Adjutant.

PERSONAL.

D. H. Scott, editor and publisher of the Advocate, Griswold, Iowa, favored THE BEE with a call yesterday.

Mrs. Wright, of Oskaloosa, is now with her daughter, Mrs. W. McCabe, wife of Letter Carrier No. 3. Mrs. McCabe has been very ill indeed, but now is improving, and is considered out of danger.

Mrs. Spear, of Council Bluffs, visited her daughter, Mrs. William Marshall, this week, and Mrs. Skith, who has been quite sick--Tabor Union.

N. C. Thompson, of Rockford, Ill., the well known manufacturer of that city, is here visiting his son, of the large agricultural machinery house of VanBrent, Thompson & Co.

H. P. M. Birkbine, father of Harry Birkbine, the engineer of the waterworks company, arrived in the city yesterday morning to witness the tests of the works to-day.

Mrs. Dr. Montgomery, who has been very ill, is now recovering rapidly.

J. Fox, New York, is at Bechtel's.

W. A. Mills, of Plum Creek, Neb., was a Pacific house Sunday guest.

J. W. Forsinger, of Chicago, is at Bechtel's.

Charles Eastman, of Chicago, was one of Bechtel's Sunday guests.

J. W. Hatton and John Welland, Carroll merchants, Sundayed at the Ogden.

H. W. Bowman and wife, of Atlantic, were at the Ogden yesterday.

sons to be eligible to membership who settled in this county during or prior to the year 1854.

UNCLE SAM'S HOUSE.

Report of the Congressional Committee Favoring Another Appropriation for Council Bluffs.

As has already been stated in THE BEE, the bill introduced by Congressman Pusey for an additional appropriation of $100,000 for the government building to be erected here has been favorably reported on by the committee on public buildings, the report prepared by Mr. Pusey, who is a member of that committee, being as follows:

An appropriation of $100,000 was made by the Forty-seventh congress for the purchase of a suitable site and the erection of a building at this place. Lots have been purchased at a cost of $14,500, and excavation for foundation of building commenced. The former supervising architect (Mr. Hill) has got up plans and specifications for a brick structure, based on a cost of $80,000. Your committee herewith attach the communications of the present supervising architect (Mr. Hill), the postmaster in charge at Council Bluffs, and the clerk of the United States district and circuit courts of the southern district of Iowa, showing that the proposed building, in their opinion, would be inadequate for even the present wants of government at this place.

Council Bluffs is a growing commercial city of 25,000 people. It has more than doubled its population in the past decade. It is the terminus of eight great trunk line railroads, over which pass the transcontinental mails of the country. It is the terminal points for as many postal routes, on which are employed twenty-nine postal clerks.

The postoffice at present at Council Bluffs receives and disburses of government funds annually, $370,000.00. It issues money orders and postal notes, 148,517.49. It pays money orders and postal notes, 148,250.95. Money deposited by other post-offices, 41,182.64. Stamps sold, 33,300.37. Box rents, 1,293.59. Number of postal clerks, 29. Local postoffice receipts, 8,208. Registered letters issued, 13,382. Registered letters received, 13,382.

The supervising architect has abandoned the idea of erecting the proposed building of brick, believing the brick manufactured in that vicinity unsuitable for the purpose. He has determined to build of stone, which will have to be transported a long distance by rail, which will materially enhance the cost and (if the building is constructed within the original appropriation) curtail the capacity and accommodations of the structure. Now, in the incipency of the enterprise, when plans can be readily remodelled for additional room, without loss or delay, and in view of the business transacted at this point, both in the postoffice department and federal courts, with the certain increasing business and demand for room in the near future in a government building at Council Bluffs, your committee deem it a wise policy and in the interest of true economy to recommend the additional appropriation of $100,000 asked for in this bill.

ANOTHER TEST.

The Water-Works to Throw Streams Again To-Day.

To-day is the time set for the second official test of the water-works. The following are the committees chosen and hydrants selected:

Alderman Wm. Siedentopf, Citizens Robert Rain and J. L. Forman; first test at Pacific house, second test at Union avenue and Broadway, third test at Fairview cemetery.

Alderman Alex. Wood, Citizens M. B. Brown and W. L. Keller; first test at Methodist church, second test at South Seventh street and Broadway, third test at Fairview cemetery.

Alderman D. F. F. Eichler, Citizens P. C. De Vol, J. C. De Haven and J. F. Brodbeck; first test at Harkness Bros', second test at Sixth street and Broadway, third test at last hydrant on South First street.

Alderman M. Keating, citizens W. A. Wood, A. C. Graham, Charles S. Pease, first test, Empie Hardware company; second test, Scott street and Broadway; third test, last hydrant on South First street.

Alderman W. C. James, citizens F. A. Conover, Samuel Haas, first test, Bloomer school building; second, Main street and Broadway; third test, hydrant on South First street.

The tests are as before--six streams, to be thrown from one-inch nozzles to a height of 100 feet--and on the third test two streams from the highest elevations in the city fifty feet into the air.

The first six streams are from hydrants at Pacific house, court house, Methodist church, Harkness Bros., Empie Hardware company and Bloomer school building.

The six hydrants of the second test are located: Union avenue and Broadway, Eighth street and Broadway, Seventh street and Broadway, Sixth street and Broadway, Scott street and Broadway, Main street and Broadway--all on Broadway, and within a short distance of each other.

The two streams from the highest elevations are to be thrown from Fairview cemetery and the last hydrant on South First street.
